Don't blame tenants' poverty on us, says Cojuangcos' lawyer

By Marlene Santiago

DON'T BLAME THE TENANTS, OR THE lack of education when the government was not involved. If thousands of tenants continue to be impoverished in the years to come, it is the government's fault, not the Cojuangcos' lawyer says.

12 death convicts get reprieve

By Bernard Mazon

MANILA (AP) — The Philippine Supreme Court has granted a reprieve to 12 death convicts, including a man charged with the 1993 assassination of a senator.

The court, which has the final say on all appeals, said the reprieve was granted because the convicts had been sentenced to death by a military court.

The court also ordered the government to file a petition for habeas corpus for the convicts, who are currently in custody.

125 LGUs violate waste handling law

MANILA, Oct. 1 — The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) has identified 125 local government units (LGUs) that have violated the country's waste handling law, Republic Act No. 9003, also known as the Ecological Solid Waste Management Act of 2000.

The DENR's Office of Environmental Management and Monitoring (OEMM) conducted a nationwide audit of the waste management practices of all 1,455 LGUs in the Philippines. The audit revealed that 125 LGUs, or 8.6 percent of the total, have failed to comply with the requirements of the law.

The DENR Secretary, General Antonio Trilla, said that the audit was a "wake-up call" for the LGUs to improve their waste management practices. He said that the DENR will continue to monitor the compliance of the LGUs and will take appropriate actions against those that fail to comply.

The DENR also said that it will provide technical assistance and training to the LGUs to help them improve their waste management practices. The DENR also said that it will continue to promote the use of environmentally sound waste management practices among the public.
